The Interagency Committee for Outdoor Recreation relies on volunteers in administering its grant programs. Volunteers provide a strategic balance and perspective on program issues and they assist with the development of program policies. The following individuals have recently completed their terms of service or have otherwise bid farewell after providing valuable analysis and excellent program advice. We applaud their outstanding service and recommend approval of the attached resolutions.

Land and Water Conservation Fund Program Advisory Committee
• Peg Panisko, West Richland	Citizen-at-Large	4.5 years
National Recreational Trails Program Advisory Committee
• John Flinger	Motorized	4 years
• John Spring	Nonmotorized	4 years
• Kim Johnson	Motorized	4 years

Together, these members have contributed over 16 years of experience, perspective, and knowledge of their recreational activities and pursuits. Collectively they have helped shape program policies that guide grants administration and ultimately the selection of projects. Recreationists in Washington will enjoy the results of their hard work and vision for years to come.
